

Avalara AvaTax

Automated sales and use tax compliance.

With real-time rate calculation and automatic return filing, AvaTax is the go-to solution for businesses of all types and sizes. AvaTax works within QuickBooks to determine sales tax rates, rules and jurisdictions so you don't have to.

Benefits to the business

No need to research sales tax rates, rules, and boundaries.

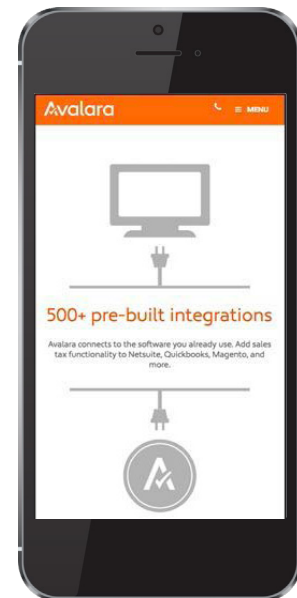

AvaTax calculates guaranteed accurate rates in each of the 12,000+ sales tax jurisdictions. Thousands of sales tax rules are applied to every product for accurate calculation in every jurisdiction.

Address validation.

Automatic validation and correction ensures sales tax calculations are accurate to a house-by-house level. Validation also reduces returned packages with auto correcting against the USPS database.

Returns filing.

Never miss another deadline with automated fast returns and remittance for local and state level jurisdictions – make just one payment and Avalara does the rest.

Benefits to the accountant

Comprehensive, end-to-end sales tax automation for your firm or on behalf of your clients.

Centralized, secure management of sales tax, exemption certificate and filing records so all your documents are in one place for reference.

Easy to use interface for set-up, management and reporting.

On-demand, out-of-the-box sales tax reporting capabilities, giving you the option to complete sales tax filing on your own or outsource to Avalara.
